Swan

Leominster,
Herefordshire

38 Cygneture, Bitter, 3.6%

Cygneture Ale is a flavoursome chestnut ale at 3.6%. Pale and crystal malts are the backbone of the mash. In terms of hops, Admiral and Goldings are added in the copper. It's also dry hopped in the fermentation vessel with Target and Goldings. Entirely sessionable, Cygneture Ale is full bodied and has plenty of flavour.

39 Priory Porter, Porter, 4.6%

Priory Porter 4.6% is dark and full bodied, brewed with a blend of 5 grains including chocolate and crystal malts to create the depth of colour. Flaked barley delivers a velvety mouthfeel, a fullness of body. The darker grains lend a malty complexity to the porter. It's a single hop varietal porter, with Herefordshire Challenger introduced early in the boil.

Thornbridge

Bakewell, Derbyshire

40 Jaipur, Strong Bitter, 5.9%

A citrus dominated India Pale Ale, its immediate impression is soft and smooth yet builds to a crescendo of massive hoppiness accentuated by honey. An enduring, bitter finish.

Titanic

Stoke-On-Trent, Staffordshire

41 Chocolate & Vanilla Stout, Speciality Beer, 4.5%

A true smooth and creamy stout with a sweet difference. The chocolate flavours are balanced by the addition of vanilla extract.

42 Plum Porter, Speciality Beer, 4.9%

Well-rounded porter with fruity, sweet notes over a backdrop of hoppy flavour. Deep red in colour but not in taste, the plum lightens the deepness on the palate.

Woodcote Manor

Bromsgrove, Worcestershire

43 Woodcote Cask Lager, 4.0%

A unique fusion of hops from around the world balanced with a special lager yeast creates a cultured body with tropical fruit citrus notes. Fresh malt flavour is evident with notes of tropical fruit from the Mosaic and Motueka hops making their presence known.

44 Weavers Special, Best Bitter, 4.4%

Aromas of sweet grain, honey, mango and dried fruit are initially encountered, followed by a taste that is refreshingly bitter but smooth and soft on the tongue. The back of the palate is left with a lingering flavour of light smoky toasted malt, fresh hops and a wonderfully addictive hint of tropical fruit right to the end. It has a light to medium body with medium carbonation.

Wye Valley

Stoke Lacy,
Herefordshire

45 Wholesome Stout, Stout, 4.6%

A dark and thoughtful brew that lets its rich coffee notes, intense roasted barley flavours and dry, bitter finish do all the talking.
