Local Gins

Bewdley Brewery Element 45% (Bewdley)

Distilled from the Wort of 'Sir Keith Park' This London Dry Gin is citrus led with the 1st hit of juniper softened with coriander seeds, 3 types of citrus followed by macadamia nuts and bay leaves.

Taking inspiration from a traditional style of slightly sweetened gin enjoyed in 18th and 19th century England.

Dr Eamers' Dry Gin 43% (Dudley)

Copper pot distilled (the still is called Doris) with nine botanicals, including Tellicherry pepper, a type of peppercorn which must be more than 4.25mm to be termed Tellicherry - and with bigger size comes less heat but more fragrant notes.

Hinton's Wyre Forest Gin 42% (Bewdley)

Hinton's Wyre Forest Gin is created using ingredients foraged from the Wyre Forest and surrounding area. A full strength and fruity gin to be enjoyed on its own or with tonic. With fruity tones which complement the Juniper, Elderflower and Fennel.

Wildjac Damson & Raspberry 37.5% (Bewdley)

A juicy expression combining the brilliance of damsons and raspberries! Specifically, organic Autumn Bliss raspberries and Shropshire prune damsons from the distillery's Worcestershire neighbours at the Augernik Fruit Farm make an appearance in here. Delightfully tart and fruity!

International Gins

Cross Keys 41% (Latvia)

A small-batch dry gin from Riga in Latvia, which was influenced heavily by the classic expression Riga Black Balsam (a traditional Latvian balsam). Bottled in a black clay container to enhance the maturation process

Malfy Gin Con Limone 41% (Italy)

Malfy Gin is an Italian gin made using a selection of six botanicals, as well as an infusion of Italian coastal lemons!

Puerto de Indias (Strawberry) 37.5% (Spain)

Combining notes of juniper and strawberry, this is a vibrantly fruit-forward Spanish gin.

National Gins

Jaffa Cake Gin 42%

A full-on Jaffa cake tastiness built around a distinctive base of crisp juniper. The label claims it'll make the best Negroni mankind has ever seen

Tarquins The Seadog Navy Strength 57%

From the Cornwall based Southwestern distillery. Distilled in their famous Spanish pot still heated from an old paella burner. The strength historically drunk by the Royal Navy. The juniper is vivid and violent, with a swift, pine hit.

Warners Sloe Gin – 30%

This wonderfully crimson tippie is Warner's Sloe Gin. Fabulously fruity, it's made with handpicked sloe berries from the hedgerows surrounding Falls Farm, where the gin is distilled.
